

AT LOUISVILLE.*SPECIAL TO THE PITTSBURGH POST.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 27.—Business was good on the wharf to-day. Departures—Grace Morris for Alton and way points; Falls City for Kentucky river points; Tell City for Evansville and lower Ohio. The City of Owensboro arrived with a good trip and she departs tomorrow. The Bob Ballard left at noon to-day for the Kentucky river with one of the largest tows ever taken up the Kentucky valley. W. E. Hayman of Letart, one of the owners, accompanied by his wife, will make the round trip on the Ballard. The Fred Wilson and Annie Roberts arrived from Pittsburgh with coal. The Diamond is lying up at Jeffersonville. Captain Aug Jutte of Pittsburgh was here last night. The weather is clear and cool.

Clipped By:

r26D

May 26, 2026