WM. R. HOFFMANN.

Since he established himself in business in San Antonio six years ago, William R. Hoffmann has come to the front and he is now one of the leading business men of this city. Mr. Hoffmann is an importer of coffees, teas and spices and he is right up to the minute. His plant and offices are located in the rear of 208 East Commerce street and his warehouse is on the Southern Pacific track, and he is contemplating putting in one of the largest plants in the south. Mr. Hoffmann handles only the finest grade of roasted coffees and he has the best trade in San Antonio. One of his special brands is known as Hoffmann's Package Coffee, which sells at from 20 to 40 cents, and is on sale at all first class grocers. This coffee is having quite a big run and people are asking for it every day. Coffee is roasted daily at Mr. Hoffmann's plant and if you want fresh goods by all means get the Hoffmann brand. Mr. Hoffmann also handles Gold Elephant tea, which is of the finest flavor. Try one cup and you will be sure to want another.
