

Manufacturers Will Tender Women Presidents a Luncheon

What San Antonio Produces in Food Will Be Served
Tuesday Noon to Heads of Various Woman's Organizations—Several to Talk on Important Subjects.

The food-product factories of the Manufacturers' Club will tender a luncheon to the fifty-six presidents of the fifty-six women's clubs of San Antonio Tuesday, February 15, at 12:30 midday.

Arrangements have been made for this entertainment with the assistance of the Made-in-San Antonio committee of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, which consists of Mrs. James M. Young, chairman; Mrs. Leo Cotton and Mrs. B. F. Mouris.

The affair, which in many ways will be novel, is expected to be one of the most memorable of its kind which has ever been held in the South.

Practically every president has signified her intention of being present.

Among the speakers will be:

Mrs. J. T. Smith, president of the City Federation and president of the Woman's Parliament; subject, "Co-Operation."

Mrs. A. H. Cadwallader, chairman of the civic committee of the Federation and president of the Prospect Hill Civic Club; subject, "Work of the Civic Department in Connection With Made-in-San Antonio Movement."

Mrs. Ell Hertzberg, president of the Council of Jewish Women and president of the Tuesday Musical Club; subject, "Suggestions to the Manufacturers How to Push Their Goods."

Mrs. George Payton, president of the Council of Mothers; subject, "Employment."

Mrs. J. R. Sprague, president of the Woman's Club; subject, "The Wife's Influence Over a Man's Purchases."

Mrs. G. P. Robinson, president of the History Club; subject, "Our Duty to Our Factories."

Mrs. Hugh B. Rice, president of the Mozart Society; subject, "How the Made-in-San Antonio Movement Benefits San Antonio."

Mrs. James M. Young, president of the Equal Franchise Society; subject, "How to Reduce the Cost of Living by Using Made-in-San Antonio Goods."

Speeches will also be made by a number of manufacturers who appreciate the offers of assistance which these women have given to assist in pushing locally-made goods.

The menu which has been prepared consists of the following well-known standard articles of food:

- Lion Alphabet Soup
(San Antonio Macaroni Factory)
- Eagle Chili Con Carne
(Gebhardt Chili Powder Company)
- Lion Egg Noodles baked with minced ham
(San Antonio Macaroni Factory)
- Cooked with gas
(San Antonio Gas and Electric Company)
- U. M. C. cold boiled ham
(Union Meat Company)
- U. M. C. Braunschweiger liver sausage
(Union Meat Company)
- Eagle deviled chili meat sandwiches
(Gebhardt Chili Powder Company)
- French rolls, Butter-Krust bread
(Richter's Steam Bakery)
- "Salsa Diablo"
(Mitrovich Manufacturing Company)
- Apple, celery and pecan salad
"Pimiento" cheese
(Creamery Dairy Company)
- "Monogram" brand vinegar
(R. M. Hughes & Co.)
- Neapolitan ice cream
(Creamery Dairy Company)
- Luxury cake
(Richter's Steam Bakery)
- H. and H. coffee
(Hoffman-Hayman Coffee Company)
- Cream
Delaware Punch
(Delaware Punch Company of Texas)
- "Monogram" pure apple cider
(R. M. Hughes & Co.)
- Duerlerbrew
(Duerler Manufacturing Company)
- Pure water
(San Antonio Water Supply Company)
- Ice
(Southern Ice Factory)
(Citizens' Ice Factory)
- Duerler's mint lozenges
(Duerler Manufacturing Company)
- Jenner's chocolates
(Jenner Manufacturing Company)
- Pioneer Flour and White Wings flour, both unbleached, used exclusively in this luncheon.

The committee of the Manufacturers' Club having charge of the preliminary arrangements consists of Paul Dreiss, chairman; G. G. Geyer, W. E. Hayman, R. Elliott Jones, Walter Steves, Arthur Storms and Secretary C. C. Leel.