

* * *

The members of the Gibbon's Literary Club and their guests enjoyed the annual Christmas luncheon at the Casa Regina, in Oakland Street, Monday, with Very Rev. H. A. Constantineau and Rev. George Sexton as guests of honor. Mrs. C. B. Mendel, the president, presided. Each one present was called upon to express some thought suggested by the holiday season. A short musical program arranged by Mrs. C. T. Griesenbeck followed. Miss Ira Mae Nethery gave several selections on the harp, "Elegy" (Massenet), the "Spanish Patrol" and by request, "The Rosary."

Miss Bessie McHugo gave two humorous pianologues "Soap," and "In the Usual Way." The tables were unusually attractive in a decoration of American beauty roses with Christmas greens and red tapers in silver holders. Among the guests present were: Mrs. E. G. Markel and Miss Margaret Carolan of St. Louis; Mrs. G. W. Moore of Ashland, Kan., Miss Lillian Rollins of Tucson, Ariz., Mrs. R. Vander Stratten, Mrs. L. Griesenbeck, Mrs. Katzenberger, Miss Marie Callsen and Miss Helen Hoffmann.

* * *