

H.-H. Announces Monthly Awards Of Big Prizes

The Hoffman-Hayman Coffee of San Antonio has just announced its combination cash and merchandise prize contest. Awards totaling $150 in cash, China-base dripolators and 500 other prizes will be given away free every thirty days, it has been announced.

The best letters submitted on "Why I buy and prefer H. & H. Coffee" will be awarded $70 in cash every month. The best "Slogans" for Sam Houston Coffee will win $45 cash every month, and the best "jingles" on Texas Girl Coffee will also win $50 cash monthly. In addition, dripolators and other prizes will be awarded. Your grocer will supply full details on this contest and entry blanks can be obtained from him.

In the short time this contest has been offered there has been an unusual interest displayed in the plan, and promises to become one of the most popular ever offered in San Antonio and Southwest Texas. First award is to be made October 31 and the end of every month thereafter.

The H. & H. company also is offering special prizes for canners at the Valley Mid-Winter Fair who use H. & H. containers for their products. These coffee containers make excellent containers for canned goods.

All the canning competitors have to do to get the extra awards is to "put up" their food as they have always done—only this year put them up in the glass quart jars that H. & H. Coffee comes packed in.

Then, if they win either a first or a second ribbon at the Fair, the H. & H. company gives a cash prize in addition to the Fair's ribbon. If you win several first or second places you get cash prizes for each place. Thus you can win as much as $30.

Buy a pound jar of H. & H. Crystalvac Coffee today. You get the best coffee money can buy (it costs no more than ordinary brands) and at the same time—you get a fine glass jar to can foods in and have the opportunity to win cash prizes at the Valley Mid-Winter Fair.

Cash prizes will be awarded on the following foods: Bread & butter pickles, cucumber pickles, onion pickles, canned grapefruit, grapefruit marmalade, (sweet orange marmalade, canned beans, canned spinach, canned tomatoes and tomato preserves.

H. & H. Crystalvac Coffee is vacuum-packed in the finest glass jars obtainable. This packing keeps H. & H. coffee fresh, full-flavored and with all its fine coffee goodness. The jars in which it is packed are of the regulation canning variety, hold one quart liquid measure, and fill a wide variety of household uses.
