

Three Injured By S. A. Autos

Three San Antonians were treated at local hospitals Tuesday as the result of auto accidents.

Albert Osterloh, 60, 613 Delaware street, suffered both legs bruised when an auto struck him as he attempted to walk across the 600 block of East Commerce street. Driver of the car was listed as O. H. Houston, 45, 2046 Nebraska street.

Arturo Vela, 12, 726 1-3 South Alamo street, received a head laceration when he was struck by a car as he attempted to cross Pereida street at South Presa. Driver of the car was listed as Frank A. Guido, 1510 West Martin street.

A hit-and-run driver sent Mrs. Etha P. Wingate, 66, 1710 Montana street, to the Robert B. Green hospital for treatment for a head injury. The car collided with the car in which she was a passenger, driven by her son, Franklin E. Wingate, 48, 1710 Montana street. The accident occurred at North Polaris and Montana streets.