

Coffee Meeting Draws S.A. Pair

A local coffee firm executive has had an opportunity to greet and advertise at the same time with the salutation, "Where have you been, old bean?"

Gus Menger, local H.&H. Coffee Company president, and his wife, Adele, joined the coffee bean industry's elite in a four-day convention at Boca Raton, Fla., Monday.

The event brought together representatives of 500 firms for the annual National Coffee Convention.

A New Orleans stopover was also scheduled for the Mengers.
